2. At the outset [] was shown the materials desired. He indicated he could supply these since they are stock items which should not be discontinued. He stated, however, that the material marked for "summer trousers and shirt" is unfit for use in trousers. He recommended strongly against its use and indicated his company would refuse to make trousers from such cloth. The material is too light and lacks body. It will not hold its shape.

3. Prices quoted are as follows:

Winter Uniform:

Trousers	2 pr @ 21.75	43.50
Shirts	2 ea @ 19.85	39.70

		73.40

*See para 5 for suggested substitute

Accessories:

Shoes (Desert Boot Style)	2 pr @ 15.90	31.80
Belt	1 ea	2.25
Ties	2 ea	2.00
		36.05

TOTAL 307.15

Cost of an additional Summer Uniform would be:

Shirt	1 ea @ 8.75
Trousers	1 pr @ 19.10
	27.85
	307.15
Grand Total	335.00

4. The above prices are not firm in that they would vary slightly depending on such things as pocket flaps and other minor changes. The firm does not make a practice of discounting for cash, but [redacted] indicated that the prices could be adjusted when more detailed information is known.

5. Attached for your information is the Livingston Uniform Catalogue showing the complete line of uniforms and accessories available. For your interest, the above prices are based on uniform style #4143 shown on page 6 of the booklet. The 3/4 reefer coat is style #4160 on page 12. Shirts are made to order. [redacted]

[redacted] indicated that these shirts have many features which make them more desirable. Information pertaining to the shirts may be found on pages 39, 40, and 41 of the booklet. Suggested also as a summer hat was the Straw Lawman shown on page 22. The price of this hat is $8.95.
